

Maggie Linens

Hire Brochure 2016 - 2017

About Us

I founded Magpie Linens when I couldn't find the luxe linens for my own wedding back in 2013. I had swooned over countless US blogposts and pinned hundreds of sparkly cloths, but alas could not find them anywhere. So I sourced them myself and it all started from there in early 2014, armed with a load of sequin linens, and a gut feeling that I couldn't be the only bride-to-be in the UK/Ireland that coveted them.

I made the decision to sell as well as hire my carefully curated range of sequins and in a matter of weeks I was asked by NotOnTheHighstreet to become a partner and sell via their site. An Etsy store soon followed. Both these platforms have been fantastic for business - I still get a kick out of the fact that my items are being sent all over the globe each and every day.

I've been very fortunate to have been featured in some of my favourite Bridal magazines and blogs, including Brides, You and Your Wedding, Rock My Wedding, and Bridal Musings; as well as playing a part in hundreds of my clients beautiful Wedding days.

This year I am delighted to introduce lots of newness to the hire range - please take a look through, I'd love to hear your thoughts!

Happy browsing
